

RM Easiteach Next Generation End User License Agreement (International) (Effective from March 2020)

SUMMARY

You may install RM Easiteach Next Generation on the same number of computers as the number of licenses you have purchased.

If you wish to Use the Software on two or more computers, you need to buy an additional copy for each computer it is to be Used on. Separate Software may be required for standalone and network systems and you should note that the purchase of a particular license does not imply that RM will provide materials for all computer or network types that you may have at your site.

Teachers and Students are entitled to take school computers home and use licensed software at home. Where a Teacher of Student wishes to install the Software on their own personal computers they must ensure that the correct number of licenses have been purchased.

Your use of this software is governed by the following end user license agreement which is in English and governed by English law. It is your responsibility to ensure you understand and comply with this license. You should not use the software unless you are able to agree to the conditions of this license.

LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR RM EASITEACH NEXT GENERATION

This is a legal agreement between you ("Licensee") and RM Education Ltd ("RM"), which expression shall include its subsidiaries, agents, successors and assigns. By downloading, installing or otherwise accessing the Software, the Licensee is agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and the RM Terms and Conditions of Sale. If the Licensee does not agree to the terms of this Agreement, the Licensee must not access the Software. This License Agreement supersedes any other license agreement contained in the manuals or in any on-screen license provided with the Software or on related Internet pages (other than the RM Terms and Conditions of Sale). A Site is defined as the single postal location of the purchasing institution, and if the purchasing institution has separate locations across multiple postal locations, each separate postal location shall be a site for the purpose of this Agreement ("the Site"). For the avoidance of doubt in the US, a school district or a federation of schools is not a Site.
